

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ELVIS WHITE BRINGS THEIR CARIBBEAN HEAT TO NBA GAME 6!

ENLISTED AS PREGAME AND HALFTIME ENTERTAINMENT FOR DETROIT PISTONS VS. MIAMI HEAT GAME 6 AT AMERICANAIRLINES ARENA!

Atlanta, GA – June 1, 2006 -- ELVIS WHITE, one of the hottest new bands to emerge on the music scene, brings their Caribbean heat to Miami, with two high energy performances scheduled at the NBA's upcoming Game 6, Detroit Pistons vs. Miami HEAT, challenge this Friday, June 2nd at the AmericanAirlines Arena.

ELVIS WHITE returns to Miami after just winning the Best New Artist trophy this past weekend at The Reggae Soca Music Awards held at the Broward Center for Performing Arts. Hailing from the British Virgin Islands, ELVIS WHITE emerged on the domestic music scene in 2005, earning accolades from their peers when they won the Best Live Band award at the 2005 Miami Carnival. ELVIS WHITE also earned their stripes when they opened for The Fugees recent European tour, winning praise from both the press and Fugees front man, Wyclef Jean. "America is opening up to Caribbean music more than ever before," stated Wyclef. "Watching this feels like the ELVIS WHITE movement...Elvis is the Godfather..."

ELVIS WHITE is slated to release their debut LP, PROMISE--Live & Direct, later this summer on 17.20/Bungalo/Universal Records.
